

Make time to play...

About us

Based in London and entering our second decade in 2023, Purling focus on delivering the highest standards, quality, and detailing in beautiful games, that are made for life and to encourage you to make time to play.

We work with artists and artisans across the globe; from chess to playing cards, from backgammon to checkers, we have developed a range of beautiful products which grace homes, offices, and other spaces to provide a social focal point for game play and relaxation. We have widened our product range and invested in systems and sourcing to lay the foundations for the next decade and beyond.

In 2022 Purling agreed a three-year sponsorship of the training and circuit costs of Zsóka Gaál. She is a protégé of Judit Polgar the greatest ever woman chess player.

Zsóka achieved the title of Woman International Master in 2021, aged just 14 years old, and the Online World Championship (Girls u14) the same year. Zsóka plays in tournaments across the world and is achieving a well-deserved reputation as a respected opponent and certainly 'one to watch' in chess. Through our relationship together Zsóka has become the first Purling Ambassador, representing our brand globally.

Create the ultimate Purling statement

A unique marriage of artistic expression and the passion of game – Purling Art Chess.

We collaborate with national and international artists to create beautiful one off pieces that are as much a statement of art as a playable game. Each piece is unique and represents an expression of the artist eye and reflection of their chosen subject.

We can create your own piece of unique Art chess via our Bespoke service (please contact info@purling.com for more details). Our Art chess sets take inspiration from original art pieces for Purling, re-creating the chess board and pairing with Purling Bold chess pieces in co-ordinating colours, featuring Italian Napa leather base felts, with the Purling logo embossed in 18 carat gold.

CHECKERS

Produced to Purling's design requirements, each piece is unique, featuring its own characteristics formed from within the natural veining and salt crystals found within the base rock.

The pieces are dyed over several days to form a rich depth of colour, before polishing and varnishing to produce a wonderful lustre.

Hand finished in London with our Italian Nappa leather base felts, featuring the Purling logo embossed in 18 carat gold, our stone checkers are presented in Purling branded luxury packaging, and can be paired with either our large stone or wooden chess boards.
